GIANT LAMPS TO LIGHT UP THE STREETS OF PARIS DECO OFF

Time and again for the past thirteen years, 150 oversized lamps, adorned in the latest textile creations by event participants - have set the January skies aglow like beautiful beacons marking out the two routes on the Right and Left Banks. Recyclable and biodegradable, the eco-friendly lampshades used for the installation help shed light on a textile industry that is determined to produce more sustainable materials.

RINGING UP THE CURTAIN FOR HOME DÉCOR

For its thirteenth edition, Paris Déco Off has launched the Festival of Fabrics to display the latest pieces by home décor creators and designers in full, majestic splendour.

Outside on the façades of the Le Moulin de la Vierge bar and restaurant (on Place des Petits-Pères), and the Hôtel de l'Industrie (on Place Saint-Germain-des-Prés), beautiful curtains will charm passers-by with their hangings and trimmings.

Inside the Hôtel de l'Industrie, visitors will discover the latest collections by the participants of Paris Déco Off, displayed outside of each hall like beautiful theatre sets awash with colours and patterns!

CARDBOARD DÉCOR: THAT'S A WRAP!

Over these 5 days, the installation, Cardboard outside the Box, will reveal innovative, protean furniture developed by a collective of seven women cardboard craft artists. The group is headed by Emmanuelle Burel-Zarée, founder of La Manivelle Cartonnage studio (and winner of a silver medal from the French Academic Society of the Arts, Sciences and Humanities (ASL)). The furniture will be displayed under two transparent bubbles located on Place Saint-Germain-des-Prés (6th arrondissement) on the Left Bank, and Place des Petits-Pères (2nd arrondissement) on the Right Bank. Each one will be filled with creations by designers in attendance at Paris Déco Off and Paris Déco Home, including fabrics, wallpaper and trimmings, accessories, tableware... You will be able to admire a lounge and bedroom styled by the stylist Alice Forest, who will be bringing the best of both worlds by marrying together sustainable furniture and exceptional creation

THINK BIG

And this year is no exception, as the oversized furniture created by Ecart International will present a bombastic show of technical prowess and aesthetic, as found in the brand's new outdoor fabrics.
